

SCEC presents “The Local Teacher Panel”

Come Join SCEC for A Great Networking Opportunity

Open To All Prospective Educators

Date and time: November 20th from 7-9pm

Where: 217 McGuffey Hall

What: Local educators will come speak to students about their teaching experiences.

Why you should come:

This is a great opportunity for professional development. You will receive an insight on the job hunting process, current trends in the field of education, and there are FREE refreshments.

This will be followed by an open forum, where students can ask any questions they may have about the field of education.

WE HOPE TO SEE YOU THERE!
