

The Student Council for Exceptional Children Presents

Chris Ulmer

Teacher, Speaker and Founder of Special Books by Special Kids

Chris Ulmer, lovingly referred to as Mr. Chris, began his career as a special education teacher in Jacksonville, Florida. After spending three years with the same students he observed a disconnect between his pupils and society. The intelligence and humor displayed by his students was not typically appreciated by those without special needs experience. For this reason, Mr. Chris started Special Books by Special Kids, a multi-media non-profit that is now spearheading a worldwide acceptance movement. Today, Chris dedicates his time to traveling around the world and teaching others about neurodiversity; performing speaking engagements and interviewing neurodiverse individuals to be featured on SBSK.

As Seen On:

Please join us to hear Chris Ulmer's presentation: Creating a More Accepting Culture, followed by a meet and greet!

Sunday, April 9th

7:30 PM in Wilks Theater